

Tall Ship Tuesdays Trivia Answer Key

Below are the answers to last week's Tall Ship Tuesdays' Trivia. Questions and answers to previous trivia questions are listed below this week's Q&A.

Question #1:

What size guns does Providence have onboard?

Answer: 4-pound deck guns and 1-pound swivel guns.

Question #2:

What methods can be used to stop?

Answer: Taking in sail, anchoring, dock lines or engine in reverse.

Question #3:

What do we call the paper that tells us everyone's job in an emergency?

Answer: The station bill

Question #4:

Does Scotch coffee have any coffee in it?

Answer: No, and it doesn't have any Scotch in it either.

Question #5:

What are the ingredients of hard tack?

Answer: Flour, water and salt

Question #6:

What is another name for hard tack?

Answer: Ship's biscuit, hard bread, pilot bread and brewis to name a few.

#tallshiptuesdays

Tall Ship Tuesdays – Previous Trivia Q & A

Q: What was the original name of the Providence, before she was a commissioned naval vessel in the Continental Navy?

A: Katy

Q: When was the Continental Navy formed?

A: Oct. 13, 1775

Q: What material is the current Providence's hull made from?

A: Fiberglass

Q: The Boston Tea Party is seen by many as the event which sparked the American Revolutionary war. On what date did it take place?

A: December 16, 1773

Q: In one of our videos AB Barlow shows us how to make rum. What other spirits were used if rum wasn't available?

A: Water and alcohol, such as rum, rye, whiskey and sometimes brandy